meeting of the Permanent Commission for Scientific-Technical Cooperation between East Germany and Poland in Berlin on 15 April 1955 was held to discuss cooperation between the two countries in 1956. The Commission is composed of six members from each country and holds its meetings first in the one and then the other country. The chairman is a member from the country in which the meeting takes place; he holds office until the next meeting and is empowered to set the time for that meeting. He also calls special meetings if so requested. Costs are borne by the host country.
